

Dyslexia & Meares Irlen Syndrome

Tuesday 5th October 2010

9:30 - 9:50am (Arrival) 10am (start) till 3:30pm (finish)

At

Grays Hotel & Conference Centre, Forgegate, Telford Shropshire TF3 4NA

Refreshments & 2 course Lunch included in fees

Delivered by Elizabeth Wilkinson

The Dyslexic Dyslexia Consultant (The DDC)

Target Audience: Teachers; trainers; classroom support staff; learning resources staff;

Under the Disability Discrimination Act (DDA) Dyslexia is a recognised disability and affects approximately 10% of the population.

Dyslexic students learn differently to not dyslexic students, under the DDA we as teachers have a legal obligation to meet learners learning needs, by 'reasonable adjustments'. Do you feel equipped to do this?

Learn about Dyslexia and Meares Irlen Syndrome; the differences, similarities, how they can impact upon your students and classroom, reasonable adjustments can be easily implemented and other things you can do to help? "Excellent training!!!" Jane Shropshire council March 2010

On completion delegates will:

- Be made aware of the differences between Dyslexia & Meares Irlen syndrome
- Be able to identify & recognized symptoms and characteristics of both Dyslexia & Meares Irlen Syndrome.
- Be equipped with tools to start the identification processes for dyslexia & Meares Irlen Syndrome
- Be equipped with strategies that can be used to enable learners to achieve
- Be given simple, useful & effective suggestions for implementation within your organization.

Fees: £115 or early bird price *£105

To reserve a place please e-mail giving:

Name: Organisation: Telephone number: E-mail: any special requirements

Places are limited to 10, so book early to avoid disappointment!

*early bird bookings must be booked by August 6th 2010.

Printed on FSC certified paper from well-managed forests.